

Client Information Forms

Payment and Appointment Policies

Napa Valley Counseling Center assists individuals, couples, and families in making more effective life choices through the process of professional counseling. In keeping with this commitment, we ask each client to read and complete the following forms before counseling begins. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask your counselor. We consider it a privilege to serve you!

Payment

Napa Valley Counseling Center is a not-for-profit corporation that exists to provide quality, Christian counseling services at a reasonable cost. We rely upon fees paid by our clients to provide salaries and services. All services rendered are the financial responsibility of the patient and not the insurance company. Our office will bill your insurance company as a courtesy. Your financial responsibility is to ensure that Napa Valley is paid for services rendered. If the client is a minor, the parent/guardian bringing the child to therapy is responsible for delivering payment at the time of service. If the client fails to follow through with payments, it is the ethical prerogative of the individual counselor to terminate counseling until the client's payments are current.

Cancellations or Missed Appointments

Appointments must be cancelled at least 24 hours before the scheduled appointment time. Failure to cancel will be reflected as a missed appointment and fees will apply. It is worth noting that insurance companies will not reimburse for missed sessions. The only time this fee will be waived is in the event of an emergency or illness. Clients who fail to pay the fees for missed appointments will not be allowed to schedule future appointments.

Missed appointment fees:

First Occurrence: $25 fee will be charged
Second Occurrence: $50 fee will be charged
Third and Subsequent Occurrences: $100 fee will be charged

Telehealth Services

Napa Valley Counseling Center offers clients the opportunity to conduct certain services through electronic technologies. Telehealth involves the use of electronic communications to enable providers at different locations to share individual client information for the purpose of improving client care. Electronic systems used will incorporate network and software security protocols to protect the confidentiality of client identification and imaging data and will include measures to safeguard the data and to ensure its integrity against intentional or unintentional corruption.

IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY, DO NOT ATTEMPT TO USE TELEHEALTH OR EMAIL. CALL 911.

Insurance

Napa Valley Counseling Center and some of its counselors have contracts with insurance companies. Our office will file claims with your insurance company. Although we will file the claim, it is your responsibility to know the "Outpatient Mental Health Coverages" of your insurance policy (co-pay amount, number of sessions allowed, etc.). Ultimately, your account with this office is your responsibility regardless of insurance coverage.

Confidential Client Information

The following information is designed to assist us in becoming better acquainted with you and in providing the help you need. All information is confidential and will remain in your file. No individual or institution will be contacted without your prior knowledge and permission. Thank you.

Counselor Disclosure Information

Janet Hedges, LCSW

General

The following information is to give you an idea of my background and my view of the counseling process, as well as clarify administrative policies and inform you of your rights and responsibilities as a client.

Professional Profile

I received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. I taught for seven years in the classroom setting, before completing my Master in Social Work degree in 1990, from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. Over the past twenty years in this field, I have worked in a variety of clinical settings, where I have provided group, family, and individual treatment in both inpatient and outpatient environments. I have experience in working with both adults and adolescents who are dealing with issues related to depression, anxiety, grief/loss, trauma, interpersonal, family, and work-related problems, as well as issues that surround physical, emotional and sexual abuse. I am not a physician, and therefore cannot prescribe medication. If you are under current medical treatment, I will work in cooperation with your doctor(s). If medical treatment is needed, I will recommend competent medical personnel and work in cooperation with them towards your best interests.

The Counseling Process

I view the counseling process as relationship driven, in which growth and change are possible through the collaborative efforts of both the client and the counselor. Together we will explore and define the problems that brought you into therapy, set goals for deeper understanding of these issues and take steps towards resolution. It is an honor for me to be a part of your journey towards healing. Steps towards growth will involve both elements of joy and pain; eliciting, at times strong emotion. Fostering an environment in which this journey can be accomplished through a sense of safety and trust, is an essential component within my counseling practice. As a Christian, it is my belief that all problems have a spiritual dimension, and biblical themes inform my beliefs about the nature of problems and the subsequent process of change. These spiritual aspects of your problem areas will be discussed in therapy as you feel comfortable.

Client's Rights and Responsibilities

You are encouraged to ask me any questions you have regarding my educational and professional background, therapeutic approach, and the specific therapy plan and progress. While I will always strive to offer services that are appropriate and in your best interest, it is your responsibility to determine whether the services are ultimately helpful. You have the right to end counseling at any time without moral, legal, or financial obligations other than those already accrued.

Acknowledgment

By signing this disclosure and informational statement, the client acknowledges having been informed of his/her rights and responsibilities under regulatory laws for counselors in Arkansas, as well as the counseling process for this counselor. In addition, the client acknowledges reading and understanding the administrative policies for this counseling office.
